

Political Activity/Canvassing Policy Bethlehem Housing Authority

- The Bethlehem Housing Authority does not endorse or support any sponsored political advocacy on BHA property.
- The Bethlehem Housing Authority prohibits the placement of any political campaign signage on BHA property, except on election day at the Bartholomew and Litzenberger facilities, which serve as polling places.
- Bethlehem Housing Authority employees, commissioners and related officials are subject to the Hatch Act and Byrd Amendment which prohibit undertaking political advocacy activities.
- The Bethlehem Housing Authority prohibits political canvassing unless the canvasser is either a tenant or a non-tenant canvasser accompanied by a tenant.